Barcelona. Lives in Mallorca

Marta Canals was born in Barcelona, where she began her artistic training in the area of drawing and illustration, continuing her studies at the School of Applied Arts in Palma de Mallorca, specializing in photography and screen printing.

She subsequently trained in textile and fashion design, as well as in wood restoration and antiques.

She expands her knowledge of graphic arts in various workshops of the Pilar i Joan Miró Foundation in Palma, and from 2005 to 2020 she is dedicated to studying and developing engraving techniques in different graphic workshops in Mallorca.

Her plastic language also includes the use of other disciplines in her projects such as painting, sculpture, assemblage, collage, mail art, artist book, installation and video art, showing her work both in Spain and in Germany, Mexico, the United States, France, United Kingdom, and Russia.
