PROMO

starting work, I studied painting, at first painting in traditional water colours. I later started on abstract painting, which gave me great satisfaction. Over time I learnt about many other things on my own, by visiting museums, attending art auctions and reading books. I developed my own style with these activities. I gained more experience with my own exhibitions and public appearances. My artistic inclinations were occasionally expressed in the theatre. If you have ever acted on the stage, you'll know how addictive it can be.

Several exhibitions of my photography and painting work were held in Germany and abroad. I have written for and collaborated on 8 books and other types of media, and am an established member of the Pasinger Archiv e.V.. I have been working successfully as a stock photographer since 2015, and am currently establishing a portfolio with an agency.

In 2017 I successfully published my first anthology "Lebkuchen ans Him" with funny stories, in 2019 followed another anthology with the title "Bockige Münzzerge" and 2020 another anthology „Systemrelevanter Stinkeäse“.
